There must be lots of excitement

at the games judging from the noise that issues from the shed every night.

The women are taking to the game and perform at the matinee.

The curlers have been requested
to keep the 'rocks' slowed away on Sundays. Guess the chaplain must be on the job.

Charlie Horsch calls his rocks
the "Fords", and Van says they rattle along like a Tin Lizzie.

The Thompson Rink is hunting for an alibi, to account for the landslide on Wednesday.

25 cents buys a Thrift Stamp.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Anderson are spending a few days in the district.

The next dance to be given by the Monitor Band will be on Friday, Jan. 24th, in the Band Hall.

Buy Thrift Stamps.

The Masquerade Ice Carnival
will be held at the local rink, tonight.

Gib Ryckman left for Calgary
on Thursday.

The action brought by W.
Simmons against Alf. Anderson over an agreement of sale, was dismissed by the Judge, who stated that the plaintiff, Simmons
had no case.

Dear Readers:

Permit the Newsmen to write a personal letter to you for once. It is an impossibility to reply to all the kind folks who sent me cards and letters of good wishes for myself and this Column.

"Whatever you do, or don't do," said a business man, "keep the column going every week, we want it, see?" And, being naturally submissive, I have made up my mind to do my best. Who will help by sending in news items? In the words of the News acrostic, "Remember to tell the truth on your life!" Now for some news items. From Kimberly, B. C. came an interesting letter from Mrs. Wadling. They were all sick with the flu, but are doing nicely now. They send greetings to all Bideford friends and will be glad of a line. We met Miss Sigrid Hagen in the Store, home again after a long stay at Eye Hill. Sigrid had the flu and was nursing others. Margaret Conquest writes of a wonderful Xmas tree at Government House and presents galore. Sir Richard and Lady Lake are beloved by all.

We regret to hear that little Allie, the eldest son of Dr. and Mrs. Dean Robinson, met with an accident and broke his leg. We are glad to see Mrs. Lee Hein is home again after a long rest back East, and we hope that the hotel business will be brisker now. We hear that the Red Cross sent a New Year Card to Calgary Headquarters of $15 to be used for general purposes, also the annual report. Now, dear friends, the Red Cross still needs funds, also the character of its work varies from day to day. Anyone who may have cause, and who has not, for offering thanks, at this, the beginning of a Year of Peace, cannot do better than let it take the form of a membership in the Bideford Red Cross at $2. Two wee Scotchman, aged six, appeared in town at Xmas dressed in kilts, an 'a' an 'a'. They had journeyed many hundreds of miles from the States and had a delightful Yankee accent. Little Charlie Conquest tells a pretty story of the long trip, "Neil and me were singing our favorite song on the train 'Here's Jolly Good Luck to Johnny Canuck', and all of a sudden a great big soldier shouted out ever so loud 'You betcha!' and looked awful glad. We can just imagine that soldier's feelings on reaching home to be with loved back with songs. Bideford Station is now O. K'd and we can enjoy the clean, pleasant waiting room, decidedly one better than the old time cabin. The Superintendent visited it and pronounced it all very good.

W. Conquest has gone to Kindersley to work at the Clarion Press. Dunk McLeod has gone back after a good time at home. The Clerk of the weather was exceedingly gracious and sent us to or they spring days just as samples of what is in store. Now the Editor will frown his terrible frown if this is not cut short.

The School Trustees met in the Schoolhouse, on Jan. the 18th, with L. Walker in the chair. It is to be regretted there was not an attendance of parents and those interested in education. J. McLeod was elected as trustee and L. Walker was requested to hold office for another year. The usual reports were read and discussion of ways and means took place. We should like to see every family represented on such occasions.

Thanks to Miss Inkster the school children had a delightful Xmas party, last week, when old Santa appeared with a large sack and gladdened the hearts of everyone. He actually gave the Newsmen a Stocking! (one never grows too old for candies.) We should like to thank publicly the teacher, Mr. Staley, and other friends who helped the Kiddies celebrate. The prize winners were delighted with their books. Let me but do my work from day to day, in field or forest, at the desk or loom, in roaring market-places or tranquil room; Let me but find it in my heart to say, When vagrant wishes beckon me astray: This is my work; my blessing, not my doom Of all who live I am the one by whom This work can best be done, the right way. Then I shall see it not too great nor small, To suit my spirit and to prove my powers; Then shall I cheerful greet the laboring hours And cheerful turn when the long shadows fall.

At eventide, to play and love and rest, Because I know for me my life is best.

Thrift does not imply meanness. It is just good business applied to the home. We are beginning to know the meaning of thrift in Canada today. We had forgotten about the frugality of the pioneer settlers. We now see that we have been burning the candle at both ends.

New Homestead Map

There has been in preparation for sometime in the Office of the Natural Resources Intelligence Branch, Department of the Interior, Ottawa, a new edition of a map much sought after by prospective settlers to Western Canada, namely the Southern Alberta Homestead Map.

The new issue is most comprehensive in the information that it contains. By an elaborate color scheme for instance, the vast land area that is included in the portion of the which is covered by the map has been divided in such a way as to indicate clearly the disposition of the whole. The various colors represent lands finally disposed of, lands entered for but not patented, Forest Reserves, Timber Berths, Grazing Leases, Dominion Parks and Indian Reserves, also the boundaries of Dominion Land Agencies and the location of the different Land Offices.

In addition to the information already referred to there are one or two new features included in the map which are especially worthy of note. A light buff denotes the lands which have been reserved exclusively for settlement by returned soldiers. Those which may become available for the same purpose as a result of cancellation or abandonment are also indicated.

Persons desiring a copy of the map should make application to the Superintendent of the Natural Resources Intelligence Branch, Department of the Interior, Ottawa.
